

Khronos Chapters

Taiwan
June 2012

Khronos Chapters Overview

- What are Khronos Chapters?
 - Khronos Chapters are a global network of like minded volunteers and participants
 - A familiar organizational structure; such as IDGA or ACM Chapters
 - Chapter activity helps members, professors, developers, students stay connected
- Discuss Khronos-related topics on a different level than trade shows
 - Exchange ideas in more depth
 - Broad scope
- Meet other representatives socially
 - From other companies
 - Including industry Gurus!

Khronos Chapters Structure

- Khronos Chapters are run by volunteers
 - Each Chapter can base its structure around local interests
 - Khronos can help with guidelines and sometimes funding and sponsorship
- Each Chapter requires a "Chapter Leader"
 - Liaison to and evangelist for Khronos at the local (city or region) level
 - Coordinate local, casual, end-user supported meet-up activities
 - Recruit volunteers to help run the chapter

Example Chapter Activities

- Informative “Meetups”

- Presentations from companies and researchers in the area using Khronos APIs
- Updates from local Khronos members
- Invite Khronos roadshow speakers to attend and present

- Education can be a priority

- Meetings for students and professionals: “DevU” at night or weekends
- Liaison with local academics and industry
- Assist local educators to get involved with KITE

- Socializing is important also!

- Coding sessions and competitions – “WebGL Coding Jam”
- Social gala/public outreach to showcase local technology

Student Volunteer Opportunities

- Student Volunteer Programs
 - Looks good on student's resume and builds future network
- Khronos Group has opportunities to help at shows
 - Students and developers can get involved
- Help needed translating materials
 - Need translations of: Spec, Reference Book, Man Pages

Worldwide Meetups

WebGL Meet-up San Francisco Sep11

How do I start a Khronos Chapter?

- First, check the list of Khronos Chapters to make sure there is not already an active Chapter functioning in your city or region
 - If there is, please join this Khronos Chapter and contribute your ideas and experience
- If there is not a Khronos Chapter in your area and you are interested in volunteering to help start one in your city or region
 - Just fill out the simple online form at www.Khronos.org/NewChapters to express your interest
